The Mirboo North & District Community Foundation (MNDCF) (ABN 49 954 324 242) is an independent place-based charitable foundation in south east Victoria. It was established in 2010 to invest the proceeds of the Mirboo North community aged care facility. Donations are invited from individuals, families, business and other organisations to contribute to the funds held in trust for the current and future needs of the community. MNDCF is an incorporated, membership based organisation with two staff members and governed by a volunteer Board of Directors. More than $1,300,000 has been distributed for the benefit of the community since establishment.
