About FRRR – Foundation for Rural Regional Renewal

The Foundation for Rural and Regional renewal (FRRR) is a national charity that was established in 2000. FRRR has distributed more than $135 million to over 13,000 projects across Australia to date.

FRRR is focussed on improving outcomes in the areas of People, Place, and Disaster Resilience & Climate Solutions. FRRR believes that targeted philanthropic investment and collaboration with business and governments will build more vibrant, sustainable, and adaptive remote, rural, and regional communities - and a more equitable and prosperous Australia as a whole.

The Role – Senior Program Manager

Reporting to the Disaster, Resilience and Recovery Portfolio Lead, the Senior Program Manager will lead the delivery of the Future Drought Fund’s Helping Regional Communities Prepare for Drought initiative. The initiative is a cross-sectoral collaboration involving philanthropy, Government, business, and community and utilises a place-based approach to strengthening the resilience and preparedness of those communities. This position has four direct reports.

- Build and manage relationships with key stakeholders in government.
- Manage budgets and contracts.
- Produce high quality reports to Government.
- Manage, deliver, and evaluate complex multi-stakeholder projects.
- Create high quality reports and generate insight into sector issues, trends, and opportunities.

Your Skills and Attributes

- High level of communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment.
- Ability to produce high quality reports.
- Experience working in regional, rural, or remote settings.
- Proven track record successfully managing program budgets, contracts, and reporting to Government.
- Experience managing remote contractors and aligning organisation culture, program objectives, and team performance.
- Understanding of Future Drought Fund investment and activity.
- Success in relationship and general partnership growth and management.
- Grant program management and philanthropic sector experience highly regarded.

Rewards & Benefits

- Flexible work arrangements and work-from-home options by negotiation.
